

Curriculum Map for the Master's Program in Applied Anthropology of the Department of Human Development and Psychology (For students entering in the 112th admission year.)

	First Year of Master's Program (First Semester)	First Year of Master's Program (Second Semester)	Second Year of Master's Program (First Semester)
Required Courses	The Theory of Sociocultural Anthropology /3 Research Ethics Education Online Program /0 Theories of Biological Anthropology /3	Seminar ( I ) /1	Seminar (II) /1 Anthropological methods /2(Biennial)
Elective Courses	Evolution and Culture /3 Molecular Anthropology /3 Introduction to Forensic Anthropology /2 Seminar in Gender Issues and Multicultural Education /3 Human Dermatoglyphics /2
Core Competencies	The ability to handle anthropological expertise and issues.	The ability to engage in practical work in anthropology.
Educational Objectives	Exploring the principles and issues of human biological and socio-cultural development based on anthropological theory, and applying anthropological knowledge to the sustainable development of society and culture.
Remarks	Master's students must complete 24 credits and complete a thesis to be eligible to apply for a degree examination.

Passed in the Curriculum Meeting on March 22, 112